

SPOTLIGHT ON STAFF: TANIKA HILL

In her role as Administrative Assistant, Tanika's is the friendly voice you hear when you call Macedonia FACE.

We sat down with Tanika to learn about her and to hear about her work with Macedonia FACE.

How did you come to be employed at FACE?

I was always curious about FACE, but never applied. I was asked by an agency about an open position, I agreed, and they presented me. After interviews with members of the staff to ensure I was a good fit for the organization, I was asked to join the team.

Where did you learn the skills needed to do your job?

I'd started working in the office in high school and over the years I have had various on the job trainings, business analyst, executive assistant, etc. among other trainings in various markets. My operations/administrative background allows me to experience so many aspects of the business at FACE

Why do you work at FACE rather than anywhere else?

FACE is very unique. There's a sense of pride in the work we put in daily. We are truly a team and are held accountable.

What do you see as your best skills / contributions to the organization?

I'm a true people person and have the ability to adjust quickly when necessary. Those are qualities necessary within the org. no matter what dept.

Tell us about your life outside of work. Tell us about your family, hobbies, and interests.

I love spending time with my family and close friends. I love to write poetry- anything in the arts is good for me. I also love to travel.

How is Macedonia FACE's mission a match for you?

I'm a passionate person who enjoys engaging with the community and helping others while doing so, FACE conveys the culture that allows me to do just that.
